In Holy Land Dispute

Role of Conciliator Taken by Canada

LAKE SUCCESS, Nov. 4.—(AP)—Canada took the role of conciliator today in an effort to compromise United States-Russian differences over implementation of the partition of Palestine into sovereign Jewish and Arab nations.

Authoritative sources said the Canadian delegation was ready to suggest that a working committee composed of the United States, Russia and Guatemala take up implementation of the American and Russian plans in an effort to reconcile the differences.

The Canadian delegation also was prepared, these sources said, to warn members of the United Nations assembly's "partition" sub-committee against giving the Security Council the task of overseeing the partition as suggested in the European plan yesterday.

EARL—It was thought the Canadian statement might be made today or tomorrow. It was felt that the Dominion aims primarily at a "partition" of the main issues and focusing attention on basic difficulties.

Yesterdays Russian presented their Palestine plan, calling for ending the British mandate next June, withdrawal of British troops by May 1, and handing over administration of the Holy Land to the Soviet Comintern on establishment of the two states by Jan. 1, 1948.

The Canadians believe this plan is shot through with weaknesses and have presented the Soviet Union with a six-point plan, six questions asking a clarification of these points.

The Canadian plan also is not particularly impressed with the Russians yesterday, while it proposes that certain territories be handed over simultaneously with both Jewish and Arab states coming into existence July 1.

Winant Dies by Shooting

Ex-U.S. Ambassador To Britain Is Dead

CONCORD, N.H., Nov. 4.—(AP)—John G. Winant, 58, former ambassador to the Court of St. James's, committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the head with a bullet fired from a .32 caliber Benelli pistol.

His PRIVATE secretary, J. Bernard Teulon, said in a statement issued early today that the death was the result of a bullet found in the bedroom where his body was discovered. The other, a 32-year-old Lague, said he had been thrown against the wall when Winant failed to find ammunition.

Teulon said that Winant had not been working on his memoirs, but that he had continued work on his memoirs, even completing the first volume of the second volume yesterday.

He ate lunch downstairs, but dinner served in his room. No

Scottish Elections Under Way Today

LONDON, Nov. 4.—(AP)—The political spotlight swung to Scotland today as 69 cities and towns had elections. The contests were watched by many observers as a barometer of public reaction toward the policies of Prime Minister Attlee's Labor government.

The fact that Scotland is predominantly Conservative, except in a few areas, was a continuation of the right-wing trend evidenced Saturday in local elections in England and Wales.

A mistake was discovered in the Borough of Gillingham, in Kent, which led to a by-election. The Conservatives with a gain of 420 council seats and Labor with a net of 23.

She had apparently been climbing in a large lane leading against the house when it fell over on top of her. The girl, built of wood, was 10 feet long, 2 feet wide and four feet high. One bar fell over her chest and another over her head.

Corporal Dr. A. G. Scott of Bassetts said no inquest would be held.

Congress May Act On Record Ban

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—(AP)—The former United States vice-president, Henry A. Wallace, arrived today by plane from Rome and the Middle East. Wallace, who spent 12 days in Palestine, said he had been unable to make arrangements to return to the United States.

He said one way to keep Petropoli from destroying the oil fields in Palestine would be to make labor unions like the Ceylon and Sherman anti-trust laws for action in restraint of trade.

ALGER STORY

Paul Gallico today opines that the person who did most to set the Average Person against the Rich Man was a quiet little author by the name of Horatio Alger. How this writer of rags-to-riches tales did it will be found in Gallico's column on Page 9.

Newsman Is Missing

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 4.—(Reuters)—Dietrich Pfeiffer, 40, a 20-year-old political correspondent of the United States-licensed Berlin paper Die Rote Aktion, was missing in the Russian sector of the city Saturday, it was alleged today.

The article said Pfeiffer, who is said to have deliberately made a "undercover" news network in the Russian zone, have arrested and beaten him with the help of the Soviet-licensed German press.

Pfeiffer, said to have been working for the Soviet sector of Berlin, was expecting a friend from that zone Saturday, when he was shot in the head with a bullet. He received a telegram message from a stranger saying that his friend was seriously hurt in an automobile accident.

His friend was said to be lying in a house at Friedrichshagen near the border of the Soviet zone, and he left Friedrichshagen and, according to today's report, nothing has been heard of him since.

Rob Cashier At Gun Point

CALGARY, Nov. 4.—(CP)—Two men, one armed with a nickel-plated revolver, held cashier Mrs. Olive Keefe at gun-point and forced her to give them $1,000, approximately $900 at 9.30 p.m. last night.

Mrs. Keefe said she was counting in her cage preparation to leave working when two men in their twenties approached the window of the cashier's cage at the theatre. They thought they were going to purchase theatre tickets.

Then one of the gunmen pointed a nickel-plated revolver at her and in a quiet voice ordered, "hand over the money."

Several persons were standing near the cashier's cage at the time and Mrs. Keefe was able to take a picture of a robbery until the men left the theatre. The gunmen had their backs to the by-standers and the result the robbery was not seen.

Yara Bernette Wins Triumph in Recital

Blazing virtuosity, penetrating imagination, emotional and sensitive tonal contests, were combined in a most brilliant recital given by Yara Bernette at McDougal United Church on Monday night. It was the second concert in the current season's Celebrity Series, sponsored by the Women's Musical Club, and the 70th since the series commenced 14 years ago.

YOUNG, TALL, slender, dark-haired, bright-eyed, with an infectious smile, Miss Bernette aduced a preponderance of irresistible evidence that she possesses the rare gift of genius. Great artiste Seldom does one encounter such a combined aural and ocular treat as Yara Bernette.

An audience that overflowed into the choir loft accorded her an enthusiastic ovation that did not subside until the final encore at the end of the regular program.

Her playing throughout was distinguished by fluency and ease, rigidly disciplined and prepared with meticulous attention to detail. She had the ability to make what she employed it, not to dazzle, a succession of sensitively felt and artistic interpretations that raised the con-

Trade Breaks "Hot" Hockey Brother Act

REGINA, Nov. 4.-(CP)—Partial disapproval last night followed in the wake of hockey's biggest act, when Max and Doug, the hottest brother act—Max and Doug Bentley—left the National Hockey League.

Although letters from the boys had mentioned the possibility of a trade, their 74-year-old father, William, was the first to say what they ever would—or should—separate.

"I were there they wouldn't have broken up," he told The Canadian Press by telephone from his farm home at Delisle, 345 miles south of Regina.

Yesterday's trade, which sent Max to Toronto Maple Leaf end, the famous Bentley-Bentley-Mosienko line with two others, was the biggest the highest-scoring forward line. Billy Mosienko was sidelined after an injury in a pre-season game.

Part of Mr. Bentley's disappointment was probably due to the fact the family has specialized in family teams. Son, Doug, was a neighbor as goal-tender—once terrorized female hockey circles as a member of the famous "Dynamiters" and Doug their first hockey lessons.

THE BENTLEY baseball team, the Delisle Cardinals—won the North Saskatchewan baseball league title last summer when Max at center field, Doug at shortstop and two other brothers and Bev Bentley, son of Max and Doug, Bev, now leads team of Canadian Oaks of the Pacific Coast League.

Bentley doesn't think either of the boys will be all right when what the other was thinking.

Lethbridge Leafs Stop Regina's Capitals 8-2

LETHBRIDGE, Nov. 4.-(CP)—Lethbridge Maple Leafs of the Western Canada Senior Hockey League, outlasted their vaunted opposition throughout Monday night by defeating Regina Capitals 8-2 in a game in which the Leafs never allowed Caps' scoring punch a chance to get started.

The visitors' Leafs led 1-0 after the first period, but the Caps' goals 6 seconds apart put the team on ice for the remainder.

Stewart and Bodnar each had 2 goals and 10 points, following a 10-point night with eight skaters and Lethbridge with six and—in the cellar—Edmonton with four.

THE LEADS were established when Caps' ched in Corrigan's defense was not slow to pay off. Don Menzies (Edmonton) and Tom Hickey (Regina) both had 2 goals, while Gordie Simpson to put Lethbridge on top by beating Foddy at 6:08. Menzies' goal Foddy out of play after skidding the puck into the Regina rearguard.

Four minutes later Gil Nordin took a shot from Kirkpatrick and whipped the puck into the nets over Foddy's prone body. Only to be followed by another 2 goals 12 seconds later Nordin made it 4-0.

FOR LEADS Nordin was tops with three goals. Menzies scored 2, while Gordie Simpson and Hall one apiece. Regina's only goals, both in the middle section, came in the hands of Bill Kyle and Al McDougall.

Leafs had a healthy margin in lead after the first period, testing Foddy in the second. Malle Hugies had only live shots to his credit.

Clubs Complete Gaudiest Deal In NHL History

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.-(CP)—

One of the most important players deals in National Hockey League history was negotiated yesterday when Chicago Black Hawks defeated in all six starts to date, traded back to the Bentley and rookie Cy Thomas for five prominent members of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Black Hawks broke up modern hockey's most famous family, when Gordie, Ted and Doug—to obtain centre Gus Bodnar, wingmen Gabe Stewart and Ted McHugh, and two defencemen Bob Goldham and Ernie Dickens.

THE OTHER Chicago player involved in the straight player deal announced after an estimated 10-hour battle between Toronto and Chicago was rookie forward Cyth Thomas.

The three forwards Hawks obtained from the Leafs and Pats—played as a team for the first time starting with the 1946-47 season—will be known as "kid line" rivaling in potentiality the great Toronto combination of Charlie Conacher, Harvey Jackson and Joe Primeau.

PRESIDENT Bill Tobin of the Hawks, who announced the trade after the 10th game, said Conn Smythe of the Leafs, said the Toronto players would report immediately to Chicago, while the Toronto Bruins here Wednesday night.

Max Bentley, 37, led the point-getters last season with 72 and in 1946 with 61. With brother Doug and Ted McHugh, he formed the famed "Pony" line while pestered by rivals from the 1940-41 season.

MANAGER Johnny Gorman said he will keep the Toronto trio to the Boston Pats, and when all from Ontario, he will be assigned to the district, unit on one forward line, with Goldham paired behind the blueline along with the likes of Marciel as Chicago's No. 1 defense.

Chicago hockey sources said

Dickie Dickey, highly, saying he came to the Leafs as an outstanding defenceman, and that the Horns of the American League.

STEWART and Bodnar also did a fine job, respectively awarded to outstanding rookies, and the two rugged, broke in with Lee's during the 1945-46 season and a great night of work when he was injured in Fort William, where reports of his talents were heard when Stewart was still a boy.

Bodnar, one of the frailest players in hockey, but remarkably strong, was a star in the 1946-47 season when he scored 62 points for the best performance ever achieved by a Leaf.

EXPERT HOCKEY men considered the five-for-five deal the gaudiest transaction in NHL history.

THE LEADS were established when Foddy was beaten by 10:08. Menzies' goal Foddy out of play after skidding the puck into the Regina rearguard.

Four minutes later Gil Nordin took a shot from Kirkpatrick and whipped the puck into the nets over Foddy's prone body. Only to be followed by another 2 goals 12 seconds later Nordin made it 4-0.

Paul Gallico

Says:

One of the charges made before the Congressional Committee investigating Communism in the Senate, was that the Communists literally considered it a good day's work, raising a pat on the back from Moscow, to have a country in a mess, or a moment in a picture ridiculing the rich and holding them up to contempt and contempt, or making them look like villains. Out of them, Good old Party come more grudges. I owe the Reds for muddying up the water, for the revolution, which for many years took me to the writing and thus making things tougher for the craft. The average only villain has been swindling students with first this and then that muddle. The average only selected the character who, in the last installment, is led away by the cops from their muddle. To their muddle, the average only who does the dirty work in a story today is likely to bring a Congressional Committee down upon you, charging you with following the party line and programming for Uncle Joe.

I have been up to the fire at the moment at which in the final chapter it is brought out that it was the Wall Street Tycoon who committed the muddle. The average only and not the butler, or the respectable banker was really engaged in the muddle. The average only robbing widows and orphans on the side. However, some day I will, and that day that eventually will come, point out that the man responsible for the greatest and most terrible disaster in the history of the rich man in the United States over the last seven-fifteen years was not the average only pale or hairy fellow from the Steppes, but a quiet little American gentleman born in Revelstoke, May 19, 1884. A graduate, a teacher, a journalist and a Unitarian Minister. His name was Horatio Alger.

Good Old Plot

Good Old Plot

Before he died in 1959, he had written more than 100 juvenile books read by millions of American boys. I used to devour them when I was a kid. "The Wizard of Id" "Lock and Pluck" etc. The plot was always the same. The rich squire, or miserly village Cossack, or the like, had a mortgage on the home of the destitute widow if she cannot meet the interest payments. The hero - poor but honest - goes out into the world to try to dig up the scratch. And many times he ends up on the last page at the last moment with the hard-earned moolah, pays off the mortgage, saves the scoundrel and sends him out into the night gnashing his teeth alone.

It has taken the country banker and the rich man in the United States a half century to get out from under the stigma placed upon bankers, and greenback men in general. Horatio Alger. There are still millions of the older generation in the country who are afraid to read the plot. They don't know why, but it goes back to their juvenile reading.

But when I was a kid the Wealthy ground down the Poor and took their homes away from them by force. It took me two years to overcome my own aversion and learn that a mortgage is something which you can pay off. And that the man who gets you to live in a much more expensive house than you can afford, and that the man who sets it up for you is your plot.

But when I was a kid at the turn of the century, the rich man was a hero in the eyes of high and low and fat and over-lusted ones who turned out into the snow and ice, though up to his neck in oil or blood money, on the day of mid-day. Only last week, the first sentence spoken by one of the most powerful men in the world "I'm going to pay off my mortgage!" Still the influence of the old Horatio Alger man, that old Crimson, Horatio Alger.

So you see!

Employment in Canada Record All-Time High

With employment in Canada at a record all-time high, only grave danger to the Dominion's continued prosperity lies in the steady upward spiral of wages and prices, in the view of C. A. L. Investigations reveal that a group of boys were stretching a slingshot not far from the place where the girl was standing. The boys suddenly let the fence go and a hawk flew off, and struck the girl in the eye.

It is not yet known whether or not the youngster will lose sight of the eye.

Unemployed at the present time number just 73,000, less than two per cent of the total employables in the country.

There were 3,000,000 insured under the unemployment insurance regulations as of last October.

The fund available for unemployment insurance now totals $40,000,000. Payments since the beginning of the year have been about $105,000,000.

Pointing out that full employment in Canada depends on this production, Mr. Murchison said, "The commission hopes how long it will be before prices can be maintained if prices continue to go up."

AT PRESENT Canada's main industry is agriculture and there is no immediate sign of a recession, he added.

On Dec. 1, to June 1, 1947, the national unemployment service, another function of the commission, has placed 2,225,000 persons.

Of these, 575,000 were veterans. About 10,000 of the veterans had been discharged as a result of war service.

If wages and prices continue to advance, there will be two results. A strong demand will be placed on those with fixed incomes and secondly the export trade will be affected.

This export is now only possible because of substantial loan made by the Bank of Canada and the U.S.A. he pointed out.

ALTHOUGH WAGES are now at an all-time high, people are not cashing in their war bonds and are cashing in their war bonds.

Murchison declared the commission does not propose any reduction in unemployment insurance payments to the fund or to the individual claimant, but he gave the reasons as follows:

"In order that the fund might be able to meet its obligations in a sound condition, certain rates of contribution had to be established. This was done by a broad-based unemployment experience of previous years and the rates of unemployment on which the act was based were 11.4 per cent during the years 1921 to 1931 inclusive.

On the average, the percentage worked amounted to 11.4 per cent. The best year was all in 1930, when the rate was 12.5 per cent. The total potential man-hours. The worst year was 1923 when the percentage rose to 31.4 per cent.

It is in subsequent years the percentage of idle time approximates the annual rate and election of the year will be held Dec. 1.

Entertainment consisted of community singing led by Jack Jones with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Adeline Jones, and a reading by Mrs. S. Dunbar.

Election Day Citizens Have Important Duty

Edmontonians will go to the polls Wednesday to elect a mayor, five aldermen and four school trustees. Elections also will vote on whether or not the city adopts the principle of one-year terms for its mayors and burgesses will vote on bylaw to empower the city council to borrow up to $150,000 for the erection of an auditorium, civic recreation center and a municipal building on the civic centre.

The polls will be open at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, and will

Mr. M. H. Hanesius said, adding that it is the first time Nov. 4 would represent no particular organization but aims to move all citizens to the polls. He said, "The people of Alberta are the ones who will vote."

Mr. J. G. Gwynne, CDA alderman, contended The Citizen's Committee believed they had no platform at the start of the campaign but after four days Citizen candidates have gradually adopted all of The Citizen's platform. He referred to a newspaper account of a city council meeting on Sept. 28, when the alderman had demanded "representative city employees so there would be 'value received' from increases in salary."

He said, "I was asked to pay for $10 will 'acutely fill a small paper bag with groceries these days.'

He said, he had just visited families living in an auto camp where the drinking water had been contaminated and the houses in conditions that were beyond description. Declaring the city should concentrate on houses, he said, "why, obviously, we did not accept the Central Mortgage Housing plan now operating in Vancouver and elsewhere, other than houses."

Mrs. R. G. M. Rowan, CDA school board, has lived in Edmonton for 10 years and has been active in many organizations for 20 years, the Home and School Association being one that has taken much of her time.

She pointed out to the record of CDA members of the school board in the last two years, and in many ways, such as free text books in Grade nine.

The party would continue to press for free text books in grades right up to Grade 12, she declared.

Dr. J. B. Willis, CDA alderman, said he would support the Citizen's candidates because they represent "nobody" and were therefore responsible to "nobody."

The health of the citizens was of primary importance and two more attention, he said, should be given to garbage disposal and other measures of a like nature, the speaker concluded.

He had never observed any city employee he felt needed to be propped-up and had personal knowledge of the high morale and understanding by all civic employee with whom he had been in contact with. He urged all citizens to vote on election day.

Glensk-Hamilton Wedding Held at Erskine United Church

Erskine United Church was the scene of the candlelight ceremony Saturday evening when Miss Rita Glensk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Glensk, was married to James Glenesk, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Gleesk of Sudbury, Ont. The Rev. Mr. Morgan of Caledon performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. R. H. Glensk, who conducted the wedding music and during the signing of the register Robert Willis was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white sheer fastened with silking at the waist and a lace hem with which she wore lace gloves. A pearl headress held her long veil in place and she carried a pearl necklace and a corsage of red roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the bride's room.

For a honeymoon through the United States, the bride and groom will travel the way west, a powder blue suit of wool crepe, beige accessories and a coat of winter white.

EATON'S

We've been looking in our scrapbook!

We've been thumbing through the pages of our "family album" . . . glancing back at some of the milestones in our 78 years of business! We're proud of the innovations, the improvements, the many, many Eaton "firsts" that have helped us to give better, fuller service to our thousands of Canadian customers! But the thing in which we take the greatest pride of all is the very first entry in our book . . . the principle that Timothy Eaton put into force the day that Eaton's began . . . that remained the keystone of our business ever since: the simple, straightforward Guarantee of

"GOODS SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED"

This time-tested, unqualified Guarantee applies to price, to quality, to value, and performance! It is a particular safeguard for your shopping dollar against any unwarranted price increases. No wonder so many hundreds of thousands of Canadians think of Eaton's first when shopping plans are made!
